

ONLY A SPARK

A spark from a chimney caused a loss of millions and also the loss of many lives in the Baltimore fire not many years ago. The spark fell into some rubbish in a back yard where it had been allowed to gather. It was a menace to the lives of the neighbors. How many such places have we here in Portsmouth? How about the cellars and out-buildings? Are they alive with inflammable material? This is Fire Prevention Week and our citizens may well take account of stock of their premises. The annual loss in the country runs into millions, and some years billions. Resolve this day to make your own homes safe and teach your children the dangers that lurk about. Fires increase the cost of living and in every way affect the prosperity of the country.

RAID HOTEL OF FORMER DRY AGENT

Christie, Just Back From South With 18-Year-Old Bride, in More Trouble at Merrimac

It seems to be just one thing after another for George J. Christie a former dry agent who was married in this city and later wanted the marriage annulled on the grounds of his wife having another husband at the time of the marriage. Christie owns the Monomack Inn at Merrimac, Mass., and recently created another sensation in that town by running away with an 18-year old telephone operator to Savannah, Ga., where they were married following his arrest.

Now comes Chief of Police James Donohue of Merrimac on the scene with a raiding squad who force their way into the hotel on Sunday where they found liquor and gambling machines in the basement.

The raiding officers made their sudden appearance just when townspeople were wending their way towards church. The din of axes of the squad and the clang of the church bells came together, awakening the Sabbath quietude of the little town.

Christie, who only arrived back from Savannah, Ga., 48 hours ago with his 18-year old bride, was intending to bring his girl wife to the hotel today where she was to be set up as the priestess of the inn.

Six gallons of hard cider, one pint of brandy, one pint of Scotch whiskey and 70 empty beer bottles were the sum total of what the officers secured in the raid.

Christie has spoken in different churches in the town before gatherings of the men's clubs, telling how he enforced the liquor law when he was a federal enforcement officer in Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Florida. His tales were vivid and full of old-time dash and romance. It was after he had severed his connection with the Volstead enforcement bureau that he acquired and opened the historic old hotel which is on the main artery of motor travel to Salisbury and Hampton beaches.

Christie's recent arrest in the south for taking away an 18-year old girl while he was still petitioning for an annulment from a prior marriage in Portsmouth has not been heard. It is expected that it will come up in the probate court in Salem this week.

WRECK EPPING LOCKUP AND SET PRISONER FREE

Four Later Arrested at Lynnfield After 18 Mile Chase by Newburyport Police

The town of Epping had a sensation on Sunday when three young men said to belong in or around Boston, caused the release of the fourth man, Leo McGlone from the Epping lockup. The four arrived in town Sunday forenoon and made a general disturbance on the main street. Chief of Police Jenkins arrested McGlone on a charge of drunkenness and placed him in a cell in the basement of the town hall. Two hours later the police discovered that the prisoner was missing. His companions came back and wrecked the lockup with a crowbar and hammers. McGlone escaped through a window. The chief of police sent word to Amesbury and Newburyport. Officer Lynch of Newburyport heard of the machine being on Winter street in that city. He gave them a chase to Lynnfield where the four were placed under arrest. They gave their names as James McCarthy 21, of Wadleigh street, Dorchester, and is believed to be Leo McGlone of Brookline. The other three men were booked as John D. McVarish, 23 of 91 Boylston street, Brookline, Thomas Hussey, 23 of 37 Kendall street, Brookline, and Thomas L. Kelley, 25 of 234 Cypress street, Brookline.

They were brought back to Epping today for a hearing before Judge Gilmore and likely will land in the Portsmouth jail where they will have no change of duplicating the work they did in Epping.

COAL WORKERS GO ON STRIKE

18,000 Employees of Pennsylvania Co. Quit Owing to Alleged Grievances

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 8.—Eighteen thousand anthracite coal miners employed by the Hudson Coal Company were on strike today according to claims of the general grievance committee representing the workers. The employees voted to strike at the mass meeting held here Saturday night and the general grievance committee issued a call for the 22,000 workers to quit at the 22 collieries of the company between Carbondale and Nanticoke. Failure of the company to adjust numerous alleged grievances was the cause of the walkout.

Local Yard Will Be Open for Inspection and Public May Visit Submarines

The complete program for Navy Day, Oct. 27, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard has been announced by Capt. D. E. Dismukes, commandant, and contains much of interest. Oct. 27, the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, was most appropriately selected on account of his great friendship for the navy and his belief in preparedness as a preventive of aggressiveness and war.

The object of Navy Day is not to promote propaganda, but only an interest in and an intelligent understanding of the reasons for having a navy.

The local yard will be open to the public all day and all yard activities and all ships at the yard will be open to visitors. By special permission of the navy department visitors will be allowed for that day only on board some of the latest submarines.

A souvenir booklet will be given to visitors at the information booth.

The complete program will be as follows:

Visiting hours—10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Entrance to Navy Yard (1) by naval ferry leaving Portsmouth every fifteen minutes. The ferry landing is at the foot of Daniel street near new bridge. (2) By bridge from Kittery, Me.

Automobiles may be parked in Navy Yard.

Information booths near entrance to yard. Guides will be stationed there to accompany visitors.

First Aid station near ferry landing. This is the only U. S. Navy Yard where submarines are built. Several of the most modern type are now on the building ways, thus affording visitors a good opportunity to observe these vessels under construction.

Vessels in commission, now at the navy yard, are open to visitors on Navy Day. These include types of submarines, which are open to the public by special authority from the Secretary of the Navy for Navy Day only.

Vessels out of commission include fifteen Eagle boats which were built during the World War to combat the submarine menace; armored cruiser Huntington, formerly the West Virginia; the cruisers Des Moines and Chattanooga, and the mine sweeper Woodcock. These vessels are all open to visitors on Navy Day.

At the various buildings and shops guides are stationed to escort visitors. In Building 86, occupied by the Supply Department, the Peace Treaty was signed between Russia and Japan in 1903.

Special Navy Day Events

1. Exhibition of deep sea diving at mouth of dry dock from 3 to 4 p. m.
2. Football game between Navy Yard team and Portsmouth High School Alumni at parade grounds at 2:30 p. m.

3. Exhibition drill by U. S. Marines on parade grounds between halves of football game.

4. Band concerts throughout the day at the bandstand in front of the commandant's quarters.

5. Radio receiving sets in operation throughout the day in the Supply Department building, No. 86, and in the Marine Barracks.

WOMAN MURDERS PRIEST IN CHURCH

Slayer Shoots While Kneeling in Confession Before Victim—Police Believe She is Demented

(By Associated Press)

Chicago Oct. 8.—Mrs. Emma Strutymsky kneeling in the sanctuary of the little Greek Church of St. Michael, the Archangel, her head bowed as in prayer, shot and killed the Rev. Basil Stetsuk as he knelt before her to receive a special confession she said she wanted to make because she said she was very ill and was going to a hospital. Her scream, "cheat!" and explosion and tiny spur of a pistol shot struck terror to the hearts of the parishioners, bowed reverently in the pews. The first bullet struck the priest full in the mouth. Two women seized Mrs. Strutymsky as she followed the reeling priest from the vestry and fired four more shots into him. The police believe the woman is demented.

a. m. Charlie Chaplin, who entered the hotel lobby fifteen minutes after the bandits fled, was the first outsider to learn of it. Not until five hours later after hotel employees had tried to trail the robbers and failed, was the hold-up reported to the police.

NEW ENGLAND PAY MOST FOR ANTHRACITE COAL

New York, Oct. 6.—Anthracite coal consumers this week got their bill for the wage increase Governor Pinchot granted the hard coal miners a month back, to end their strike. It averages seventy-five cents a ton.

At the anthracite mines egg, stove and nut sizes are selling at $8.50 to $10. The consumer will pay this plus the cost of freight and deliveries to his bins, which will vary according to distance, retail margins and other factors. In Philadelphia, retailers are asking $13.50 for domestic sizes and $12.50 for pea. Retail increases range from thirty, forty and seventy-five cents in Cleveland and Chicago and $1 in New England and Baltimore, and in the East dealers are offering premiums of a dollar and more to get delivery.

livery. Five and a half million tons was the production loss in the four weeks' suspension of the hard coal mines.

As against the increased price of anthracite, bituminous this week continues to decline and the curious spectacle is presented of production going ahead at a tremendous pace, the railroads moving coal in huge quantities to consumers and the trade in depths of pessimism. The average minimum price this week is $1.90 a ton, as compared with $4.16 a year ago, showing to what an extent soft coal has declined. Production last week was 11,400,000 tons. Anthracite output was near normal at 19,000,000 tons and was being pushed in an effort to make up the strike loss. Lake shipments of bituminous stood at 21,374,219 on Sept. 23 and anthracite at 2,375,212.

The Northwest was declared stocked better than at any time in its history, which means that more coal will be available for other sections for the rest of the year. Shipments up the lakes have declined this week, largely because of lack of storage rooms on the docks.

Aiding in the decline in bituminous prices has been the amount of soft coal shipped last month to meet the

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

anthracite shortage and which had been standing on the tracks. With the ending of the month and demurrage piling up, much of this was sold at sacrifice prices.

Production at Pittsburgh continues heavy, but reports of wage cuts in the non-union fields of West Virginia, with consequently lower production costs, are taken to mean new competition from these fields with little chance of any material increase in prices. Detroit industries are buying only moderately. Competition from Indiana and Pennsylvania has halted the smokeless market in Chicago. Some smokeless is reported sold at $2 and in southern Illinois prices are as low as $1.10 to $1.50, and many mines are closing, declaring that such levels mean bankruptcy, all of which indicates that now is a most opportune time to buy. Railroad purchases for storage are reported lighter.

New England buying is slow in the face of a market glut and Norfolk reports less coal arriving at its piers for the coastwise trade. Exports practically are at a standstill save for a little South American business.

Spontaneous strikes still continue in the hard coal region, 150 men going out recently because a union mine refused to pay a $25 fine without a receipt. He had been fined for doing too much work. The coal commission, in a report on earnings this week, shows that soft coal miners are making from $5 to $12 a day.

THE AUTUMN LEAVES GOOD-BYE

Said a maple leaf, "We soon must say Good-bye to the sheltering bough. I know the autumn days are here, I feel the chill wind now.

To mother-tree we must say good-bye. She's rocked us to and fro. The robin's nests are empty now. They left them long ago."

"Why go?" said Ruby, a scarlet leaf. Good-bye we need not say. For now we show such lovely tints As one the tree we sway."

"Why say good-bye?" said Topaz leaf. "Decked in this bright attire. People look up to the maple tree And our gorgeous leaves admire."

Said a beautiful leaf of a garnet shade: "This color is my delight; The sunshine makes me lovelier still. Bathes me from morn till night." "No maple leaf can rival me," Said a shining leaf of gold. And I would longer here remain, Although the days are cold."

These Autumn leaves old Jack Frost found.

They could not from him hide. He blighted them and passed along, Strew them on every side. He did not notice their bright array, Their beauty did not see. "It's time they said good-bye," said he And leave the maple tree."

He chilled the Topaz, shining leaves, Breathed on the leaves of gold; And then his icy fingers touch The ruby leaves with cold. Winds toss them rudely here and there Among leaves brown and dry; In the quiet meadow the crickets heard Them sadly say "Good-bye."

SAYS STUDENTS WITH AUTOS USUALLY FAIL

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 6.—Dr. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the University of Missouri here, in a letter to parents made public recently, requests the students be not supplied with automobiles and that those who now have cars here be required to take them home.

Dr. Brooks also suggests $50 for fixed expenses and $25 additional as a liberal monthly allowance for students and urges against a larger sum.

"There is probably no one thing more detrimental to success in university work than the possession of an automobile by a student," Dr. Brooks said in his letter. "Experience shows that an unusually large proportion of students having automobiles fail to graduate."

WILL UNIONIZE SOUTHERN MILLS

Portland, Oe., Oct. 6.—Organizers will be put in the field as soon as possible by the American Federation of Labor's executive council to unionize the workers in the textile mills of all southern states, under a resolution adopted unanimously at the convention here.

Progress has been reported in committee work on a child labor amendment to the Federal Constitution. This measure has been characterized by President Gompers as the most important before the convention.

There has been no demonstration of any radicalism—either in convention circles or in the city. Delegates are interested in the announcement that William Z. Foster, radical leader, would not speak in Portland on Oct. 7 and 10, as had been scheduled.

Matthew Woll of the photo-engravers was re-elected president of the International Labor News Service, and R. B. Woodmansee, editor of the Illinois Tradesman of Illinois, secretary-treasurer. Charles Bain, Shoe Workers' Journal, Boston, was named a vice president.

AVERAGE TAX IS THE SAME AS LAST YEAR

Concord, Oct. 7.—The State tax commission announced last Friday that the 1923 average rate of taxation throughout the state is $2.44 on $100, the same figures as last year. The real estate total valuation is given as $74,352,051, an increase of $7,882,707 over last year. The real increase exceeds $10,000,000, as the last legislature took from the inventory for taxation $2,500,000 in National Bank stock. The increase in valuation is entirely in real estate; live stock, money at interest and manufactured wood and lumber showing substantial decreases while stocks in trade remain practically the same.

The total of taxes locally assessed for state, county and local purposes is $15,270,912, or an increase of $211,111 over 1922.

The state tax this year is $350,000 less than last, however, so that county and local taxes actually increased $501,111, for which increase the counties are responsible for $114,000 and the towns and cities for $147,000.

The smallest tax rate in the state is 69 cents on $100 in Harts Location, the smallest town in the state, population 35.

The number of poll taxes listed is 251,486, an increase of 11,304 over last year.

League Strength in Weakness

One of the principal objections to the League of Nations voiced by its consistent opponents, was that it constituted a military alliance or superstate that could compel the United States to send men overseas to fight European quarrels. Its defenders said that this was not so. They now see proof of their defense in the League's recent attitude toward the Greek-Italian affair.

Called by some a sign of weakness, the League's failure to do anything more than discuss and denounce the Italian action is now pointed as evidence that it will not plunge nations into warfare against their legislative wills. The league offers machinery for mediation. If the member nations felt strongly enough on a given matter, they would no doubt agree to repressive measures to be applied to an unjustly aggressive state. Those measures, however, might be economic or moral rather than military. An agreement for strong measures, among so many different nations must always be difficult.

Now that the Italian excitement has abated somewhat, it is becoming more generally recognized that the League of Nations, while acting conservatively, really played an important made by the Council of Ambassadors and not by the League. But the unanimous denunciation of Italy in the debates of the League assembly undoubtedly influenced the issues and exerted a moral influence throughout the world.

Its humanitarian activities have already been recognized as progressive and very useful. In other matters, such as the settlement of international quarrels—it depends chiefly on the conscience of the world. That has just shown itself to be a powerful weapon.

Investment Intelligence

It begins to appear that the people can and do profit by mistakes—their own or others—in investment matters, and also that the consistent activities of government officials and reputable investment concerns in teaching the difference between sound investment and risky speculation are bearing fruit.

A magazine that conducts a very fine investment department, in which it not only offers articles on the general subject but answers specific questions about individual problems, makes this encouragement:

"One of the principal uses made of this department is by people who wish to secure an independent check on securities that have been offered to them for investment. The character of securities about which such inquiries are now made is higher than it has been in times past, indicating either that readers are becoming better educated in the matter of investing or that the promoters of questionable securities are less active than formerly."

No doubt both are true, but the sellers of questionable securities would not be less active unless buyers were more intelligent on the general subject of investment and securities.

Railroad Rates and Wages

The railroad brotherhoods are making a demand for higher wages again. They want their pay increased to the peak rate of 1925. Their demand is evidently based not so much on the present cost of living, which is much lower than it was three years ago, but on the fact that the railroads are becoming prosperous.

The farmers are insisting on lower freight rates for their products. The secretary of agriculture has championed their cause to the extent of asking for a 20 per cent reduction on crops intended for export. Representatives of agricultural organizations want liberal freight cuts on all farm products.

A pretty good argument can be made for either the railroad employees or the farmers. But it is certain they cannot both gain their objects and it is questionable whether the railroads can yield to either class without forfeiting their new prosperity.

The situation is a reminder too, of the essential rivalry of farm and labor, which idealists are now trying to organize for co-operative action. Here is each trying to get all it can out of the railroads and if either succeeds, there will be very little left for the other.

Electric Meals

The electric stove, now the last word in kitchen equipment, may soon be obsolete, if a certain British scientist knows what he is talking about. Cooking stoves will not be needed because meals will not be needed.

Electricity will supplant food. A menu card will be a list of assorted electrical vibrations from which the person in quest of nourishment will make his selection. The dinner table will be equipped with electric apparatus, with an individual set at every place, to be attached to the consumers' bodies and administer whatever kind of provender he needs, in the form of vibrations.

Just how an electron tastes, or whether any kind of electron has any taste or smell or visibility or can appeal in any way to any of the five senses, is something that is not at this moment exactly clear. The one obvious fact about the proposed innovation is that it's a shocking way to satisfy a human appetite.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A Fine Plan

(From the Boston Globe)

The Turkish plan for changing over into a republic does not follow exactly the arrangements of the United States. Turkey is to have a President elected for four or five years, but the President of Turkey is not to wake up some morning and find his Senate undoing his projects. The functions of the Parliamentary upper house are to be filled by a Council of State, the members of which will be appointed by himself.

The President of Turkey is to be his own Prime Minister. He will not be obliged, like the President of the United States, to strive for control over his Congress by extra constitutional methods. In Turkey the Assembly is to be elected for four years instead of for two. This will mean that the President will not be troubled by having an opposition Congress appear in the midst of his term and produce a deadlock like those which have tied the hands of most of our Presidents of recent years. One more major change has been made by the Turkish plan. The Assembly is to have the Cabinet Ministers responsible to it. If the Minister of Finance or of War is not to the liking of the Representatives, they can get rid of him, instead of merely sputtering their discontent.

On paper, the new Turkish layout looks well. The difficulty will come when the Government attempts to run Turkey. That is a hard job, no matter how scientific the plan.

NEWS OF THE NAVY AND NAVY YARDS

$3,000 Fire at Charlestown

Sparks from a melting pot started a fire in the foundry at the Charlestown yard on Saturday and caused damage amounting to $3,000 before the city fire department and sailors had it under control. The yard was closed to visitors who wished to see the British ship Cape Town, while the fire was being fought for over an hour.

Sparks had leaped at least 70 feet to the roof of the foundry and as the streams could not reach that high, it was necessary for the firemen to chop holes in the roof.

In fear of an explosion from water drippings getting into the metal crucibles, a large quantity of metal was dumped.

Killed by Fall in Drydock

William O. Bortware, a seaman on the destroyer McFarland, in the drydock at the Charlestown yard, died on Saturday at the Naval Hospital, Chelsea.

His skull was fractured by a fall from a staging into the drydock. He was cleansing the hull of the McFarland at the time. He belonged in Loray Mills, Glastonia, N. C.

Nearly Done

The contractors will complete the outside work of the 200-foot brick chimney for the yard power plant on Tuesday.

Two on Leave

Thomas Smith of Dover, a pipefitter in the yard power plant, and George Fisher, fireman, are on leave of absence.

Ten Days Leave

James McCabe, watchman at the Daniels street ferry landing is on leave of absence for ten days.

Sub Out for Tests

The submarine S-13 sailed at 11 o'clock this forenoon for Provincetown to engage in trial work off that port.

Pay Day for M. and L.

The mechanical and laboring forces of the local yard received $51,000 of Uncle Sam's wealth today for the week ending Sept. 30.

Coming for Spare Parts

The Chewink sailed this forenoon for the local yard from New London to take on some spare parts for submarines.

Will See Launching

Several officers from the various departments of the local yard will witness the launching of the fuel ship Whitney at Boston on Friday next.

Cook Reports at Quarters

Thomas H. Hieps, a cabin cook from the U. S. S. Galveston at Charlestown, S. C., has reported for duty in the Commandant's quarters.

Were Formerly Here

On a visit to the Navy Department in Washington, one would find many officers that were formerly on duty in the Portsmouth yard who are now connected with the various bureaus. Among whom are Admiral Gregory, Chief of Bureau of Yards and Docks, Capt. Wyman and Comdr. Hammer of Bureau of Engineering, Comdr. Lewis and Lieut. Hitchcock in the Navy Yard Division, Comdr. Jordan of the Compensation Board, Lieut. Wood of Navy Allotment office, Capt. Conard and Lieut. Timmons in the Bureau of Budget, Capt. Addison of the Federal Liquidation Board Supply officer for Washington yard and Capt. Schafer of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.

"Good-by, Boys, I'm Through!"

Thus sings George Harvey, (right), bespectacled ambassador to the Court of St. James. Harvey resigned, to become effective about Jan. 1. Here he is shown playing croquet at Warwick Castle, England, with Will Hays, czar of the movies. A rumor is circulating around New York that it is not at all unlikely that Hays will resign to take over the chairmanship of the Republican National committee. This is unconfirmed. It is further understood one of Harvey's reasons for coming back to the United States is to "help direct the coming campaign." All of which makes this little photo of Hays and Harvey rather significant.

FIND SKELETON OF MAN IN WOODS

Dover Police Have Mystery on Their Hands--Believe He Was Murdered Two Months Ago

Dover, N. H., Oct. 8.—Finding of the skeleton of a man murdered six weeks or two months ago and thrown into the brush adjacent to the factory dam of the Pacific Mills two miles from here yesterday provided the Dover police department with a deep mystery to solve.

A little brass tag attached to a pin and bearing the numerals "89" seemed to be the only clue to the man's identity.

The murdered man, however, was, about 5 feet, 6 inches in height. He wore corduroy trousers, a khaki shirt, union suit, black socks and had no shoes, but no coat.

Robert Stevens of Dover found the skeleton when walking along the Cocheco river bank this afternoon, when he saw bones of the feet protruding from beneath a pile of brush. To all appearances the body had lain there for many weeks.

All of the pockets in the clothing were empty.

NAVY YARD FOUNDRY HAS $1500 BLAZE

Boston, Oct. 8.—A stubborn fire in the foundry in building 42 of the Charlestown navy yard was extinguished by members of the Charlestown Fire Department who responded to box 448 sounded at 2.27 in the afternoon. The fire was caused by sparks from a blast furnace igniting wood-work under the plate roof.

The firemen cut several holes in the roof, which is from 70 to 80 feet from the ground, and long ladders were raised. The damage will be about $1500.

A navy yard employee discovered the fire and notified the telephone operator who informed the navy fire department. The ship forces aided in hauling hose. Another yard employee sounded the alarm from box 448. The all-out was sounded at 3.30 p. m.

MANY DESERT FROM MARINE CORPS

Washington, Oct. 6.—The United States Marine Corps, as well as the navy, is confronted by a serious problem in connection with desertions from the service. During the period from April to September, 50 desertions from the Marine Corps were at the rate of about 10 per cent of the enlisted personnel. The number of desertions during this six month period was 1059, an average of slightly more than 180 per month. Of this total 259 men returned voluntarily and were not counted as deserters.

The actual strength of the Marine Corps enlisted personnel at present is 17,374. Congress provided in the current appropriation bill for 15,500. The authorized strength of the corps is 27,400, but by limiting appropriations Congress cut down the number to 19,500, and for some months past the actual strength has been considerably below the latter figure.

FREEDOM MAN HEADS CHURCH CONFERENCE

York, Me., Oct. 8.—Rev. M. M. Heikes of Freedom, N. H., was re-elected president of the York and Cumberland conferences last week at the 19th annual conference which is in session at the Christian church here. Other officers chosen were Rev. G. H. A number of local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will attend the annual session of the New Hampshire Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Rebekah State Assembly held in Dover on Tuesday and Wednesday, the assembly opening on Tuesday at 10 o. o. f. hall at 10 a. m.

The trolley cars will look good this winter "least we forget."

AUTUMN WEDDING AT ST. JOHN'S

Barton-DeCoursey Nuptials Took Place on Saturday Afternoon

A pretty wedding ceremony occurred at St. John's Church on Saturday afternoon and in the presence of friends of the contracting parties, the bride being Miss Martha Anna DeCoursey of Hartford, Conn., daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William DeCoursey of this city, and Russell Pratt Barton of Hartford, Conn.

The church had attractive decorations for the event, arranged by friends of the bride and were entirely in green and white, white hydrangeas, asters, potted ferns and asparagus vine were used in the adornings. The altar was banked with hydrangeas and asters and at the sides and about the chancel were potted ferns and hydrangeas. The tablets were covered in white and bordered with asparagus vines.

The ushers were Walter Clark and Reginald Traflet of this city.

Miss Ruth Jarvis, the church organist, rendered the "Bridal Chorus" as the hour arrived for the ceremony and the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Arthur H. DeCoursey, who gave her in marriage.

She wore a gown of grey Canton crepe and old-blue velvet hat and carried a bouquet of bride roses and asparagus fern.

Miss Gertrude Buckmaster of this city was maid of honor, wearing an old-blue velvet gown and hat of same shade. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pale yellow and white flowers.

In the absence of the rector, Rev. A. C. Morrill of this city and Rev. John Crowell of Brooklyn, N. Y., officiated at the ceremony. At its close the newly wedded couple held an informal reception in the church vestibule. The bride is a member of St. John's church and resided in this city until some time ago and a number of the parishioners were there to greet her and extend good wishes to the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton left in the evening on their wedding trip and at its conclusion will reside in Hartford, Conn., where he has a position in an insurance office.

The bride's going away gown was of navy blue charmeuse with hat to match.

Both bride and groom have many friends and the esteem in which they are held was evidenced by the numerous choice wedding gifts which they received.

AROUND TOWN

When Whiskers Were the Style

A striking example of the popularity of whiskers and mustaches worn by men of all classes fifty years ago or more is shown by a photograph of the Keamsburg Naval Veteran Association taken by the late L. V. Newell about a half century ago.

The photograph was taken in front of the old fire station and the veterans might be mistaken for firemen at first glance. There are 33 men in the group and with the exception of but one all have either whiskers or mustache or both. The one lone beardless man looks very much out of place. Barber shops could not have prospered to any great extent in those days.

Yacht On Long Voyage

Commodore Owens and party of Bath, Me., in his private yacht dropped anchor off the Portsmouth Yacht Club late Saturday afternoon. The party is on its way to Miami, Fla., and left Detroit last month on the long trip. The yacht is a 45 foot twin screw and beautifully appointed.

On Sunday Commodore Owens called on a number of his friends in this city among whom were George Moody, Warren D. Lichman and Lieutenant Lord U. S. N. The party left late Sunday afternoon to continue its voyage. Excellent weather has been the pleasing feature of the trip up to date.

LOUIS PERELLI INVENTS AUTO HEADLIGHT

Louis F. Perelli of this city has invented an improved headlight for automobiles, for which patents have been applied in Washington, D. C. This light is unique in that it gives a wide range of view to the driver on all sides without dazzling the vision of one approaching from the opposite direction. The lights are arranged in pairs fastened to the dash board and fitted with reflectors, oval in shape, made of sheet metal. Bulbs of any size may be used, but fifty candle power bulbs are considered to be of sufficient strength. These light the road for seventy-five feet on each side of the car and three hundred feet ahead. This wide range makes it possible for the driver to observe another machine around a curve in the road and those coming from cross roads.

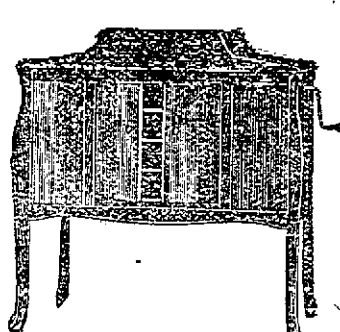

This invention will fill a long felt want and much satisfaction is expressed by those who have seen the lamps demonstrated.

Mr. Perelli is also the inventor of a walking auto truck, designed to carry heavy loads through snow drifts and over rough ground, which was described in the Herald a few months ago.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES GAME TO BREWSTER ACADEMY

Locals However Show Big Improvement In All Departments

Brewster Academy had a slight edge on Portsmouth high on Saturday and won a hard fought game 6 to 0. Brewster's only score came within a few seconds of the end of the first half when Menard threw a forward pass to Paolino, Simpson being in on the pass but over running it. Hatch made a good attempt to get him but he shook himself clear and ran forty yards for a touchdown.

In the last period Portsmouth rushed the ball by line smashes down to within four yards of the line. When a trick play was fumbled and a forward pass intercepted.

The local team showed a decided improvement over last week, and while they still show signs of uncertainty in critical times, they are coming along fast. The line was much better balanced Saturday, although the center position is still weak and it is possible that Captain Hatch may be shifted into this position from guard. Cann ran the team and his work was one of the features of the game, for he carried the ball on line rushes many yards. He still lacks experience, but with more coaching he looks like a permanent feature at quarter. The back field were the regulars and all showed well although there is a tackle too high. This despite the constant coaching they get with the dummy.

Coach Jordan while sorry to lose the game was much pleased with the improvement shown in a week's time. Brewster outweighed the locals by a good margin. They had a number of good plays but their trick plays were smothered by the locals before they got started.

The locals did not show up very well on forward passes on offense, although they were good on the defense, Simpson getting two or three. In the line the work of Robinson was a feature. He is a rugged lad who seems to get into about every play and he is reliable on both offense and defense. Young and Malloy showed up well on the ends.

The visitors' distinctive players were Captain Gilman and Paolino.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Caused by Troubles Women Often Have—Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Medina, New York.—"I had a great deal of trouble such as women often have, and this affected my nerves. For over two years I suffered this way, then I read in the Buffalo Times about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have taken it with very good results. I am very much better and feel justified in praising the Vegetable Compound to my friends and neighbors who suffer from anything of the kind."—Mrs. Wm. H. Adams, 311 Elm Road, Medina, N. Y.

Feels Like Girl Sixteen

Rochester, N. Y.—"After my twin girls were born I was all run-down. My neighbors thought I was going to die. I saw your advertisement in the paper and bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first bottle helped me and I kept on taking it. I only weighed ninety pounds when I began taking it, and I have gained in weight and feel like a girl of sixteen. I never can say enough for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Nellie Doney, 16 Sineuse Park, Rochester, N. Y.

DR. BLOOD MAY RUN FOR NATIONAL HEAD OF AMERICAN LEGION

Manchester, Oct. 7. With the American Legion delegates off to the national convention at San Francisco, speculation is rife as to who the New Hampshire representatives will support for national commander.

Additional interest was given the subject in the announcement that the Massachusetts men will be behind Clarence R. Edwards, of 26th division fame for the berth.

Naturally, his associates during the World War will be strong for this popular war leader. The sentiment also is that the New Hampshire veterans would be with Edwards, who has never lost his interest in the activities of the Granite State veterans and has attended the state Legion encampment, and also the National Guard encampments.

Manchester is represented at the convention by Maj. Oscar L. Lagerquist, commander of Manchester post, who left Saturday morning with the New England party from Boston.

Major Lagerquist served under General Edwards.

Dr. Robert O. Blood, former commander and now national vice commander of the American Legion, would be a candidate for national commander if prevailed upon. It has been learned, in that event, that he left at home as the delegates start, for the Pacific Coast are speculating still further as to where the support of the New Hampshire Legion representatives, numbering 19, would fall with Edwards and Blood as candidates.

FIGHTING THE BONUS

New York, Oct. 6.—Capt. Knowlton Durham, who has been elected president of the Ex-Servicemen's Anti-Bonus League, has issued a statement to the organization opposing a bonus for the able-bodied veterans of the World War. He says only a minority, and a minority small one at that, of members of the American Legion and other veterans' organizations, are in favor of a bonus for able-bodied ex-service men, notwithstanding what leaders of the Legion claim to the contrary. Also, he says, the League stands first, last and all the time in favor of the most generous care and compensation for every disabled World War veteran. He says the attitude of the Legion leaders as to the bonus is the greatest factor in its steadily decreasing membership; that the proposed bonus bill contains no single word or provision for the disabled veteran or for the dependents of those who were killed, but provides for "an unwarranted drain of almost $5,000,000,000 on the public treasury that a comparatively few of our able-bodied citizens may be rewarded for coming out of the war unharmed."

Captain Durham says 20,000,000 pamphlets will be placed in the hands of voters before Congress convenes "telling the truth about the bonus question." Among other things, he says, it will set forth that to care for the disabled veterans and their dependents for the next fifty years will cost $125,000,000,000—without the bonus. He also says he is convinced that a majority of the 4,000,000 veterans are opposed to a bonus for the able-bodied, as a matter of principle.

A branch of the Ex-Servicemen's Anti-Bonus League is in process of formation, for Boston and vicinity, by John R. Hurlbut, with headquarters for the next four weeks at 1 Upland road, Lexington.

TRAP LOSES TO SANBORN SEMINARY

Trap Academy lost to Sanborn Seminary at Kingston on Saturday afternoon 18 to 14. It was a tight game and the Kittery team had a good chance to win in the last half after they carried the ball well down the field but were held for touchdowns within striking distance of the goal.

Trap played a good hard game, their back field men showing to a good advantage, but they failed to break up the forward passes of the home team. One of the features was a forty yard run by Marcotte for a touchdown.

The summary:

LOCAL BOYS ON FRESHMAN TEAM

New Hampshire freshmen defeated Pinkerton Academy at Durham on Saturday afternoon and there were four Portsmouth boys in the line up. O'Leary played center until relieved by Hutchins, last year's center of the local high school. Eastman played quarter a good part of the game and "Brick" Hurley a former high school boy who last year played with Proctor Academy, played the entire game at end and he scored the only touchdown for the first half. Rutter, another of last year's squad, was ordered into the game just as the whistle ended the game.

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

Customers sometimes ask us: "Why is the heating value of gas so much higher in summer time than it is during the cold winter weather?" They seem to think that gas like everything else gets cold in winter.

The fact is that the heating value of gas is actually higher during cold weather than it is during hot weather. The reason for this is that the heating value is increased one per cent for each five per cent decrease in temperature of the gas.

However, the starting temperature of the food and water that must be heated in cooking will be colder than in summer; therefore a larger quantity of heat will be needed to bring the food or water to the boiling point. This explains briefly, why more gas is used for cooking in winter than in summer.

DR. DENISON PREACHED INSPIRING SERMON

Dr. Warren H. Denison of Dayton, Ohio, preached a very inspiring sermon at the Court Street Christian church last evening, choosing for his text 1 Cor. 15:58, "Therefore brethren be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

The speaker said it is a great thing to be a Christian when you die; and it is a greater thing to be a Christian while you have a life to live in a good and worthy way; but it is the greatest thing to be a Christian now, because of what a Christian life may mean to the world in such a crisis hour in the world's history.

When the political, industrial, religious, social and economic life is stirred to its deepest depths it presents an opportunity for Christians to make their influence felt for good as never before.

Christian men must undertake great, outstanding, challenging, spiritual tasks—greater tasks than was ever dreamed we could do. God has always asked men to do what seemed the impossible thing; it seemed impossible because man was considering only his own strength and powers but not counting on God and His spiritual power and help.

For illustration we see Moses called to lead out a great company of people in slavery from a powerful nation to a little land which they were to conquer and then to be developed into a great nation themselves—and they did.

So also was Jeremiah and many others called to what seemed an impossible work—but with God's help they succeeded.

Men think and plan in terms of their own strength. God wants us to plan and think in terms of our lives reinforced with God's powers and resources and then we can do the things which to man alone is the impossible.

FOR SWOLLEN JOINTS

Most remedies fail but Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's for joint troubles only, whether in ankle, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder, finger or spine—whether rheumatic or not.

It limbers up stiff, inflamed, painful, creaky joints so quickly you'll be astonished.

Two second rubbing and away it goes through skin and flesh right down to the bone and ligaments—that's why it succeeds. Ask any reliable druggist.

Mr. George A. Place of Concord was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bailey of Rye Beach.

STATE WIDE TOUR PLANNED

As a suitable follow-up of the very successful Golden Jubilee Sunday School convention held in Manchester last week, the New Hampshire Sunday School association has planned a state-wide tour of 14 days in the interest of the Sunday schools of the state.

The educational committee has secured the services of Prof. A. M. Locker of Chicago, a Sunday school specialist and field secretary of the International Sunday School Council of Religious Education, (formerly the International Sunday School association) who will lecture and conduct conferences on important phases of Sunday school work each afternoon and evening of the tour.

Professor Locker has been a public school teacher, Sunday school teacher and superintendent, and general secretary of the Minnesota Sunday School association, and has been connected with International association for about 15 years. He is also dean of the International Training School for Sunday School Workers at Geneva Point, Lake Winnepesaukee.

He is a pleasing and interesting platform speaker of wide experience. Parents, public and Sunday school teachers, and all interested in the secular and religious education of the boys and girls of New Hampshire should hear this practical teacher.

Afternoon and evening meetings will be held each day as follows:

Thursday, Oct. 18, Court St. Congregational church, Keene.
Friday, Oct. 19, First Baptist church, Newport.
Saturday, Oct. 20, M. E. church, Lebanon.
Sunday, Oct. 21, Christian church, Hill.
Monday, Oct. 22, Christian church, Franklin.
Tuesday, Oct. 23, M. E. church, Laconia.
Wednesday, Oct. 24, Congregational church, Conway.
Thursday, Oct. 25, Y. M. C. A., Berlin.
Friday, Oct. 26, Baptist church, Milford.
Saturday, Oct. 27, Christian church, Portsmouth.
Sunday, Oct. 28, M. E. church, Milford.
Monday, Oct. 29, Congregational church, Goffstown.
Tuesday, Oct. 30, Smith Mem. Congregational church, Hillsboro.
Wednesday, Oct. 31, Main St. M. E. church, Nashua.

Court Imposes Total of $525 on Trio Who Appeal

In the District Court at Amesbury a lively legal battle lasting nearly all day, resulted in heavy fines for three Seabrook fishermen, Edward S. Beckman, Edgar Beckman and Charles A. Eaton for lobster fishing in Massachusetts waters. They were arrested a week or more ago. Judge Pettigill ordered them to pay $25. on each of seven counts. They took an appeal.

Originally there was but a single count against each, but six additional counts were sworn out making 21 in all, or a total fine against the trio of $525.

Sam Rizer and Joseph Berry of Haverhill paid $5 each for inland fishing in violation of the law.

LARGE HAY BARN DESTROYED AT ELIOT SUNDAY

Fire destroyed a large hay barn on the farm of Fred Robinson of Eliot on Sunday noon, and for a time it looked as though all of the farm buildings would be destroyed.

Assistance was asked from Kittery and this city and Chief Woods sent up the Chemical and it did good work on the house. A small barn connected with the house caught fire and was badly damaged but the flames were kept from the house.

The hay barn was burned to the ground. The cattle were saved, although the fire spread with such rapidity that it was quick work.

The loss on the barn and contents will be about $2,500.

Let Us Fill Your Prescription

Filling prescriptions is a very important part of our business and we do not believe any store anywhere pays more attention to this line of work or can give you better satisfaction in any way.

Filling prescriptions is very exacting work but we meet the exacting conditions with a well organized store and corps of qualified properly trained pharmacist clerks.
